

FS2018/SP2019
Alleged Academic Dishonesty
52 reported cases

Assignment misconduct (48%): Includes copying another student's assignment, paper or lab report; using unauthorized sources on assignments, including another's work; misuse of clickers.

Exam misconduct (35%): Includes copying during an exam or using unauthorized aids during exams and quizzes.

Plagiarism (17%): Copying or using the words, ideas or concepts of another without proper citation.

Consequences

Academic Judgment: The academic judgment for the offense is decided by the faculty member and is a separate action from the sanctions that may be imposed by the vice provost for Academic Support (see below).

Sanctions:

- a. No Sanctions Imposed (5 students).
- b. Reflection Paper (none).
- c. Warning. A notice in writing to the student that the student is violating or has violated institutional regulations (41 students).
- d. Probation. A written reprimand for violation of specified regulations. Probation is for a designated period of time and includes the probability of more severe sanctions if the student is found to be violating any institutional regulation(s) during the probationary period (6 students).
- e. Loss of Privileges. Denial of specified privileges for a designated period of time.
- f. Discretionary Sanctions. Work assignments, service to the University, or other related discretionary.
- g. University Dismissal. An involuntary separation of the student from the institution for misconduct apart from academic requirements. It does not imply or state a minimum separation time.
- h. University Suspension. Separation of the student from the University for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions for readmission may be specified.
- i. University Expulsion. Permanent separation of the student from the University.